There will probably be more than one and I don't have the dates yet but I'm sure the date(s) and other details will be announced shortly and probably within this thread.

Yes we are! I just got confirmation from the Wildlands Conservancy for this event. The 2013 PAFF Instructional Jamboree (aka Newbie Jam) will be held on Saturday, March 16th, from 8AM until 4PM.

It will consist of two sessions - the classroom and casting instruction will be held at the Wildlands Conservancy's Pool Wildlife Sanctuary from 8AM until noon, and the afternoon on stream session will be held from 2PM to 4PM (or later) on the Little Lehigh in the vicinity of the fly shop.

Look for a post in the next day or so announcing this event (in detail) in the Events forum and the Beginner's forum.
