Orvis is hosting free fly tying classes this winter. It's a follow-up to the fly fishing 101 & 201 classes there the past two years. If you've never put a hook in a vise, or know someone who wants to learn it would be a good start. You walk out with a couple of coupons, demystification of fly tying, and a few serviceable flies.[img width=300]

A promotional poster for Orvis Fly Tying 101 classes. The background is a dark wood panel with a fish-shaped handle. The text is in white and orange. The main headline reads "Join us for FREE Fly Tying 101 classes this January and February. A $50 value!". Below this, it says "Join us on any of the dates listed below and learn fly-tying basics for FREE." and "If you're interested in participating in one of these classes, ask an Orvis Associate for details." The dates are listed as "January 19 and 26" and "February 2, 9, 16, and 23". The Orvis logo and "FLY TYING 101" are also present.
