Magi,

Can we get a clarification on the amateur rules for the PaFlyFish team? Do you guys consider anybody that has competed in sanctioned events, made profit guiding, or even just work in a fly shop considered a professional. I only ask, because OldLefty has defined himself as a professional (he is obviously) but there are a few others that might be interested, but are guides/work in a fly shop. Just so we know who is viable competitors for this event.
