Drews, I have various items I could offer. I have more than I could use. A little more than 2 years ago my dad passed away. I inhereted all of dads tying stuff. As well as having my own I have plenty. My Dad would be proud to have some new tyers and flyfishermen to have and use some of his materials. My Dad had a great love for FF, which he passed on to me. Send me a email or pm. I will let you know how I can contribute.
