If you're ever in the Harrisburg area, head over to Blue Mountain Outfitters in Marysville. They can answer any question you'll have and they have test days where you can take boats out on the river. I got my two sit on tops there and am really pleased with them. Mine is an angler model that has 5 rod holders, 1 being a scotty that sits right in front of me when I'm paddling. Its an Emotion Stealth FWIW.
