Nice thing about Hobie, is that you can pick up the mirage drive{finned paddles} and just paddle with the oar.then when depth returns replace the mirage back into the slot an start kicking.

I also like the Freedom Hawk But the cats meow would be a mixture of these . used to be a site called Kayakfishingstuff.com. they had a retail outlet near Ledgewood NJ , and also they have a forum full of info. They use to hold s KAyak day at the local lake and you could sign a waiver an then take any kayak out an try it or hell try em all out. Theres also a site called....NewEnglandKayakfishing that is also full or info , as well as a website called Kayak Angler. FWIW my buddy turned me onto kayak fishing, he owns a few Hobies and also enters Kayak fishing tournements along the New England Coast,has won a few also. I really liked the Hobie best IMHO.
