My father grew up a few miles down the road from there. Way before my time, the cabin at the bridge pool used to be a family members, so he always tells me his fishing stories growing up. Anyways..... when I was younger, you could get a permit from the fort and park and fish your way up from there. I have no idea if you still can or cannot, but the fishing used to be stellar farther up the stream. My dad used to catch alot of wild brookies way upstream 35+ years ago, but what I remember as a kid was mostly browns. The manada is absolutely beautiful farther up in the gap.
