

Subject: : Fly Tying

Topic: : Suggestions for a fly tying light

Re: Suggestions for a fly tying light

Author: : JeffK

Date: : 2013/2/7 10:01:21

URL:

For traveling I just got a little gooseneck LED desk light from Target or somewhere similar. However, the LED light is a little bluish and a daylight lamp is easier on my eyes. I can tie flies under LED light, but for some reason need daylight to wrap rods.

Magnification depends on your eyes. Never needed it when I was young; now I do. I prefer just getting higher power reading glasses. Others prefer the magnifier. It's a personal choice.