when the old 'southway' was open the twice daily flush of tide and bait kept cow stripers around for a few days on their way to stellwagen, ensuring 3 odd weeks of waves of fresh hungry fish every day or two from late May to mid June.

This was the opening that closed up in '87 correct? This is close to where I've been visiting the last two years; and everything I've read involved phenomenal fishing from those beaches...until the southway closed.

Should be interesting to see what comes of this.
