I like this idea. Maybe it'd be a Rookie-Friendly Brookie Jam. Personally, I'd rather go NC because I want to see more of it and there are so many nat-repro type streams. Plus I can't be accused of spot burning since I cant even find a gas station up there...

June sounds good to me, but whatever. Sure there's no common availability in people's schedules. Agree with comments above I have had fun trips ons small streams with three guys -- even with Becker and Fox :)
