yeah jeremy i know ha but i dont want to wait til spring or summer to learn ha but im still learning what flies to use and what not ha its like learning to fish all over again but yea i keep hearing about these hares ear nymphs but have no idea what they look like haha

but thanks for the reasurring squatch....it jus frustrates me cause i usually catch fish on the spinning reel but i hear catching a trout on the fly is better then catching 20 on bait
