Really Chaz? So you rip their mouths apart when removing the fly so that is why there is no difference. First, when I've hooked a trout really badly I've simply cut the fly off and let him go. I don't think I've ever ripped his mouth off trying to remove a fly.

Difference, a bought fly is $2 at most, a tied fly pennies. A rapala is $8 so people aren't cutting them off to save the fish.

The way they handled those trout was a disgrace.
