

Subject: : Fly Fishing Locations

Topic: : Donegal Creek, Lancaster County

Re: Donegal Creek, Lancaster County

Author: : jeremymcon

Date: : 2013/2/16 12:01:29

URL:

I was there this past Wednesday, and didn't have any luck. I know plenty of people that catch lots of fish there. Apparently they aren't that selective. People say white woolybuggers work, SJW, green weenie, egg patterns, scuds, but I can't speak from personal experience - I don't have much! Lol. Definitely worth fishing, though, especially if you generally know what you're doing.