Morning folks. Been looking over many of the posts and it seems that a lot of folks are Fly Fishing the Little lehigh. I'm a little familiar with the Lehigh River and a bit confused if the Little Lehigh is just what you folks call the river or is it a smaller stream that is connected to the river. I'm in Yardley Bucks County so a trip to Allentown close to the Lehigh river is not much more than an hour away. I don't want anyone to reveal there fishing hole but can anyone tell me how to get to the Little Lehigh and whereabouts should I look to fish the little lehigh. Is there public access to the little lehigh which makes sense for me to start as a newbie....thanks
