treble hooks are perfectly legal and don't harm fish any more then flies.

Which would you rather get to the back of the ear? A barbless fly hook or a two treble hooks?

What...are you comparing humans to trout? I would not want either. So, I guess you should stop fly fishing or maybe you could tie your flies on one of these...http://www.google.com/patents/US53395 ...awing#v=onepage&q&f=false

Several years ago someone was tying dry flies on hooks with a bead on the point so a trout would not get hook. All the fisherman would experience would be the take.
