I own a Zenith 490 and 590. I love them both. Was also impressed with their customer service. Broke a rod on in Montana (my fault) and called Hardy from a shop that had my same 4 wt in stock. They let me take the broken section from the shop's rod that day and didn't even charge me the full replacement fee. It was awesome of the shop to agree to that as well....

Also got to fish a guides 1 piece Zenith 6 wt. That was super sweet. The logistics of a 1 piece rod doesn't work for me though...

I've had Rio Gold lines on both Rods. Used a 4 and 5 on the 490 and have used a 5 and 6 on the 590. I feel like the matching line works best. I'm due for new lines and thinking of trying the Rio Grand.

Get whichever one psychs you up the most! They are all great rods.
