The Sage One and the Helios are both Top Shelf rods..... but so expensive?

I have a Helios 3wt. A 8'4" mid flex with recoil guides. It's the lightest rod in the world (that's why I purchased it) and it has the best casting action in the world.

Every cast is perfect with a good rod, and the fight from a small fish is a beautiful thing! If you get a good rod, you won't have to upgrade all the time? I love to fly fish, so I had to get the best rod available ..... the Helios!
