I would like to go tent camping in the catskill mtn and fly fish for trout. I have been out there last year and i seen a nice campground on the beaverkill river between hancock and roscoe. The campsite seemed to be right on the water on the opposite side of 17. Would anyone know what campground this might be? or any other nice campgrounds on the river? Thank you for your time.

Sounds like the Butternut Grove Campground: <http://www.facebook.com/pages/Butternut-Grove-Campsite/194094199115>

I've stayed there quite a few times. Nice place, but make your reservations early. It books up quickly during prime fishing season.
