Dear Board,

I made a suggestion on the forum topics board about this subject and was told that it would be difficult to do.

I'm a stubborn Irishman and I have a hard time talking no for an answer so I figured I'd attempt to set something up myself. I think it's important to give credit where it is due in a selling and trading forum as it inspires confidence in both buyers and sellers.

The process and format is simple. If you buy or sell on this forum just fill in this short form and post your response. Hopefully the powers that be can sticky this post and we can view a history of the trading process.

Here is the first one

Buyer-Tim Murphy

Seller-Roho1

Item-Premo deer hair strips

Experience-Communication was excellent, shipment was prompt and the items were as described. Buy with confidence from this guy.

Regards,

Tim Murphy 😊
