Show went great. Probably the most amount of people I've seen in the show since I started coming about 4-5 years ago. I guess Lefty can fill a room...

I saw a lot of familiar faces, many from this board and also a lot of people who knew who I was that introduced themselves. It was good to meet everyone and the show was a great success! Can't wait to do it again next year.

Primanti's was great too. David's gonna have some real trouble on his hands raising 2 little blonde girls. They definitely didn't get his looks!
