Really though... Thanks for all the advice. I have had such a hard time with the technology that I make it difficult. Here is my FINAL decision....

I am returning the TFO Pro 2 (6wt) combo and getting the BVK 5 wt. Keeping my old Orvis Clearwater reel (from 1999) and going to look at reels this weekend at the Fly show in Lancaster.

My issue was mod fast or fast and I guess that the BVK because of the rod itself and the feel, is a better choice. I make things difficult and they don't need to be...
