I have them and love them. They are durable, sized a bit bigger IMO. I wear them year round. They keep my feet warm in the winter. The are like new after 1 year for me so far. I fish from the dog days to sub zero and they hold up nice. I even left them in my car overnight and had them freeze, no leaks yet from a guy who fishes a lot and is tough on gear. WEll worth the money for a no bells and whistles wader that does what it needs to do.
