

Subject: : Fly Tying

Topic: : CDC flies

Re: CDC flies

Author: : osprey

Date: : 2013/3/1 7:31:51

URL:

Can't post pics but try this one out , use CDC in any downwing dry fly imitation of the wing. For example tie an Elk Hair Caddis and substitute CDC for the elk hair wing. This works real well for caddis , stonefly , any downwing pattern in small sizes especially. When they get waterlogged a shake or two in powder/crystal floatant will bring it back to life.