I'm coming up on 8 months of fly fishing now, and a great day for me has been about 8 trout in a 3 hour outing. Being a student I don't ever find time to spend a whole day on the water. This winter a really great outing has been 1 or 2 fish in a 2 or 3 hour outing!

I'm relocating to Lewistown after I finish school, and have a full time job lined up. There are lots of awesome trout streams up there, so I imagine in the next couple years a "great" day for me will be significantly better than a "great" day right now.
