Hi Launce - No, that's not the bag I bought. The link still works in my original post from last year.

This gear bag is designed to hold extra fly boxes, gear, and accessories. I use mine to hold my leader building supplies as well. It also holds a rod tube (strapped on) and several reels. Basically, everything but waders, vest, wading jacket, and boots

Lots of room, and has held up well to abuse. Still looks like new.

This isn't designed as a something you carry out wading - it's pretty big. It's a gear bag for your vehicle or boat.
