Ok. I see. I just it bold and didn't realize it was a link. Thats a nice bag for the price.

You mentioned leader building, I started experimenting with making furled leaders last week out of 4X tippet. I'm not sure if I'm doing it right. I have my thicker section with four strands and my thinner section at two strands both about 3' long.

It's really hard to get the number of twists right. I overdid it a few times and didnt get nice loops on each end. Tricky stuff.
