Dear fishidiot,

Still, I imagine it's nice to see your 1st print, if only for comparisons sake? No doubt you have progressed as an artist.

It's probably not the right quote to use for an ex-serviceman but Chairman Mao said,"A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step."

I'm an ex-serviceman and I'm keeping the Chairman's quote in my mind as I struggle with nature photography. The good thing is with digital I don't have the expense of film development, I can just delete what has been mostly garbage and start over.

Which brings a question, can you wear out a CF card? 😊

Seriously though, you have a great eye and the ability to translate that to paper or canvas or whatever the heck you use. I am struggling to get that "eye".

I know what is visually interesting and appealing to me as I view the works of others but I'll be damned if I can figure out how to put that together with my work?

I hope to one day acquire that ability, may you always have yours!

Regards,

Tim Murphy 😊
