The Village Inn in Harrisonburg is nice and I believe they still take pets. Plenty of hotels in Charlottesville that take pets as well.

In regards to SNP streams, access is easier outside of Skyline Drive. Skyline Drive, as its name suggests, puts you on top of the ridge. This will require you to hike down the mountain to fish the streams. Accessing the streams from their lower park boundaries will allow for less hiking and more fishing. Nothing wrong with hiking though...

There is plenty of private water options in the area if you don't mind catching stocked rainbows. Even the private sections of Mossy feature areas where you will be fishing over stocked fish. Not sure it matters to you.

There are plenty of streams off of the Blue Ridge Parkway that offer good fishing for brook trout.

The Jackson River near Hidden Valley has some good fishing... not sure about lodging options though.
