

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : why stock over wild trout

why stock over wild trout

Author: : SNPbound

Date: : 2013/3/4 13:38:33

URL:

Just a quick question, looking to see what everyone else thinks. Why does the fish commission stock over wild trout? I would think spending as much as we do for licensing that some of it would go towards conservation and not just raising stockers for the put and take fisherman. Why not put a little towards helping the wild trout that are already there take more of a stronghold and put the stockers in streams that don't support natural reproduction? Just looking for some insight.