Pcray, thanks for the info! I was sitting here thinking...What the heck am I doing wrong? lol Although, I am sure there is a lot that I do 'wrong' but I agree with you 100% about Spring Creek and my perceived 'average' day on it. Next time the cicadas are here you should make sure you fish it. I caught 39, all on cicadas on top, a few years ago. That is by far the most trout I have caught on one day. I can't wait until they come back... Going to daydream about it.... best day ever...
