The driving was MUCH worse out in the country and in the small towns. Trust me on that. The opposite side of the road thing wasn't hard to get used to. Nor the traffic circles. Just ridiculously narrow roads, and often a rock wall or similar where a berm should be! Every time a car came the other way it was a white knuckle experience. I couldn't get used to that.

Kylemoore Abbey was pretty. The view from the top of Diamond Hill was better, and includes an airplane like view of Kylemoore.
