Simply amazing ties!

Half the fun of fly fishing is tying the flies yourself. I've done almost the same thing with my fave, the Woollybugger. I've made so many adjustments to that streamer..... it looks real in the water!

I have seen some "shaped lead" for tying cress or scuds, even has thread slots. I'll have to get some and tie some and post something in the tying section?

Snow tonight, but spring right around the corner. Daylight savings time in 5 days, and reg trout season opens in 3 weeks. Thank God!
