I'm all for sharing information with others, but you get none from me. You have already done some research on the area and you live 10 miles from there. Get off your butt and find out how the fishing is. I don't want to hear your sob story about your limited time, no gas money, I'm afraid of the Boogey Man or whatever lame excuse that you have.

Make a decision on your own, it's okay if you are right or wrong, you still got out.
