DryFlyGuy-The Dan Shields/George Harvey collaboration about Harvey's fishing career mentions just what you noted in your post about the SI article.

As for spot burning: Some of us absolutely abhor spot burners and spot burning for many reasons. But, we're never going to change the minds of those who love spot burning and spot burners. For us, it is another losing battle. For those who love spot burning, it is another glorious victory over those of us who hate it.
