This movie is almost 48 min long. It does not have the excitement of fly fishing in Alaska or on famous streams out west, but it is entertaining and relaxing.

Here's the official description:

"The Complete Angler is a film by James Prosek (artist/writer), Fritz Mitchell (producer/editor) and Peter Franchella (cinematographer). It documents Prosek's travels as he walks in the footsteps of the 17th century English writer, Izaak Walton—"research" for his senior thesis at Yale. The film focuses on Walton's book, The Compleat Angler, a book that many have heard of but few have actually read."
