I wouldn't group all flyfishers as elitists because a small minority of them belong to private clubs. those that belong to these clubs are the same wealthy few that belong to private golf, tennis, etc, clubs.

It the same as saying all motorcycle riders are like the hells angels, which while yes, they do ride motorcycles, are nothing more than organized crime, far from being motorcyclists. Not saying private fishing clubs are organized crime(maybe?!), just saying those that belong represent such a small minority of flyfishing folks.

that said, I believe it is DEAD WRONG to use public waters for private use and profit, NO MATTER THE REASON, be it fishing club, gas company use, etc.

but of course, money talks, and the regular folk like us get to walk.

Are you saying you're a member of Hell's Angels?
