Jack - that's funny. I stopped at FFP Friday afternoon on my way to camp, and they were sold out.

I stopped at the Evening Hatch on my way home today and got the last two pair they had for Fox and djs12354.

The owner of the Evening Hatch said essentially the same thing as FFP. They sold two dozen of them at the Lancaster show in one day, and 28 of them at Somerset in one day.

Guess the word is out about them...
