The Trout Show is a fun event that we look forward to presenting every year. I am confident that no matter what your fishing interest is, there will be something at the show for you. Our members have canvassed far and wide to bring a broad array of merchandise to our raffle tables. Be sure to notice where the merchandise comes from. Many fly shops and outfitters as well as other retailers have been very generous in providing prizes and/or discounts. Your patronage of these stores is our way of thanking these folks. Be sure to mention VFTU and the Trout Show while you are shopping.

This year we will welcome Mike Heck as our featured guest. Mike is an Orvis Endorsed Guide, instructor and author. He is native to south central Pennsylvania and wrote the book, Spring Creek Strategies. His book will be available for purchase and signing at the show. Come out and learn from a master who loves to share his knowledge.

Come and enjoy the evening with us and get some great fishing insight. It is a great antidote for cabin fever and a great lead-in to Opening Day.
