Fished Saturday morning, but only stayed for about 1.5 hours. Too many poeple for my liking. Caught 2 small browns before I packed it up. I did hang behind the shop for a while just watching the circus that was going on in the big hole behind the shop. Watched 2 guys move right in on a guy who had been fisihng the hole all morning, cast over his line a few times, and eventually drive him out shaking his head.

On the way home I stopped and checked out SRC, and it looked perfect. Didn't really feel like taking the stuff back out and fishing, more just gauging the water. I'll probably try to fish it next weekend if I don't end up in Ohio.
