wgmiller,

Yeah, it's the new Photobucket? I tried for a half hour to get the old photobucket back..... but it doesn't seem to work for me! With this one you have to click on a pic, and hit the arrows? It's terrible, I won't use it anymore.

They don't want me to select photos and add a link with the size that would be good for this site..... they want me to purchase prints from them! I've been free loading from them for a long time, so they want to "fix" the problem.

And you can't "embed" vids on a Mac like you can on a PC! That's why everyone on this site is going crazy with the embed's! LOL So funny to me..... if Jack knew that I could embed then he would probably stop his dozens of old black blues crap? it's enough to make you sick!

Even if I could embed, I wouldn't because it's so much fun for me to watch!

PS - I haven't seen you in a couple years..... do you still fly fish at Muddy Creek FFO?
