That is probably why they don't work for me with a smaller face and a princess and the pea sensitivity. I have trouble with any glasses causing pressure points just above my ears and My Sun Clouds are a bit heavy. I don't hate them, they are good glasses but if you can afford to splurge. I'd go with Oakleys for premium optics and comfort. I so want a pair, but I know I'd leave them on a river bank somewhere. Or sit on them ..or scratch them.
