wsender,

I'm guessing that Josh and Tom will be out around Wed or Thur. I hope to and want to stay for the entire week. If the fishing and weather are decent, I can / will do that. If it's nasty out and the fishing is real slow, I may head out early and get some work done around the house. I believe DaveS (pending employment change) will be in for the long haul as well. I think Bruno and Alby will be up at that time too. Shane's in, NickR (TBD) and I'm pressuring dkile for a commitment. :) Forecast says they are to get 6-8" of snow tonight. That's badly needed too.
