Hmm, let me think it over. I'd like to get rid of a few outfits that I never use or have used 2-3 times. Knowing me.... I'll sell you the reel and line. 2 weeks later, I'll look at the rod and think "holy crap, I need to get a reel for that thing". Defeats the intent.

That 4wt Ultra is a very smooth rod for small / medium streams. See if you can find someone to buy the rod and I'll do something with you on the reel. I'll even throw in a tin of mustache wax.
