I was just looking for new net bags, actually have one in the mail that is to arrive tomorrow.

Based on your dimensions of 56in circumference, that would be about a 17in diameter I think. Try taking a look at these two sites, seem to have some of the better prices out there:

<http://www.jannsnetcraft.com/replacement-nets/934160.aspx>

<http://frabill.com/landing-nets/replacement-netting.html>

Good luck!

Thanks elonDO! I ordered one from Jann's Net craft. They have a pretty neat site. Lots of products you don't see just anywhere. I may get something else from them.
