I think now days the best route is to get a kayak and learn to cast from it. A kayak can go anywhere. A boat cannot. I own a boat, love it very much however I can only go to lakes and maybe some deep rivers with it. The boat does not offer any exercise as I feel I need. It takes more gas to get to the lake with a boat and the boat uses gas. Think Green my friend and go with the kayak. If you want to go fishing from a boat you can always call me at 267-338-8753...I live in the philadelphia area, and normally fish up at Noximixon, however I will travel to Blue Marsh or Beltsville with no problem.
