For $5000 you should be able to locate a used drift boat and trailer. I bought my Hyde low profile and trailer for $5200 and that included freight from Idaho. It was quite a few years ago but many of the outfitters on the Delaware are always selling boats and getting new models. I'd call them to see if any are for sale.

Or you could buy two one man pontoon boats and one of those $900 trailers that Home Depot & Lowe's sells and cam strap one boat on top of the other and you'll spend no more than $2500.
