Hey there im Nick Johnson im 25 and from Harborcreek Pa wich is part of Erie. I have been steelhead fishing for years here but im much more interested in the hiking/small stream aspect of the sport. I have been a few times but only to oil creek with some luck. I would like to find a new fishing buddy willing to hit up some areas with me and take turns driving. If anyone is in the area and wanna do some fishing hit me up nj110167@yahoo.com.

Thanks guys.
