Since wen do you need 2 cars to pull a trailer?

One car to pull a trailer

And with your loaded combined weight being like 1000 tops, you'll be fine with most anything

Shuttling is part of the deal and not a reason to pass on a boat

Storage is an issue

Glass boats don't like to sit in the elements

Look at Michigan

Economy is bombed, so you can find a deal

And their rivers are sand and timber, so boats aren't beat up

If you go out of state for a used boat... Be ready for the pain of making sure boat and trailer both have titles
