From my perspective, I have a hard boat and the pac 1300, if had to choose one for general fishing all over PA, I'd choose the raft. Given thhe choice, I'll always fish from the hard boat, but keep in mind that the raft will open up a lot of water for you that the hard boat never could. With a couple of guys, you can put in and take out just about anywhere with the raft. That was the first boat I bought, and if I were limited to one boat in PA, it would be rubber.
