The Swap Forum is intended for regular message board participants to offer for sale or trade items of unwanted fly fishing equipment. Flyshops, dealers and other professional or semi-professional traders are welcome to purchase advertising on the site, but please do not use the swap forum.

If you are new to the site and your first post is to sell a bunch of new products you are on the wrong website. This is not ebay.

If you don't follow the guidelines your post will be deleted.
